Angela Cody
Sr. Manager, Inclusion and Diversity
Mallinckrodt Pharmaceuticals

Angela Cody is the Senior Manager of Inclusion and Diversity at Mallinckrodt Pharmaceuticals. In this role, she develops, implements, and manages Mallinckrodt's global Inclusion & Diversity strategy and programs, as well as the company's 13 Business Resource Groups across two Chapters. By designing a well-crafted, integrated strategy and effectively building and leveraging the teams, Angela led the Mallinckrodt Inclusion and Diversity Council to a top 10 Council in the nation in 2016 and 2017.

Angela is known as an inclusion and diversity subject matter expert and is an engaging speaker at local and national conferences. She is highly sought after for the workshops she has developed, designed, and facilitated on topics such as unconscious bias, micro-inequities, building inclusive teams, and measuring and articulating the return on investment (ROI) for diversity and inclusion.

Angela recently pioneered the start-up of the St. Louis Diversity & Inclusion Consortium, and in 2017 she was recognized as Mogul's Top 100 Innovators for Diversity and Inclusion.
