

Lorena Kreis, Partnership Curator at Impact Hub Zürich

Lorena Kreis is Partnership Curator at the Impact Hub Zürich. Impact Hub Zürich is an entrepreneurial community of over 800 innovators, start-ups, intrapreneurs and corporates, that have come together to build a radically collaborative and cooperative world. Impact Hub Zürich belongs to a global network of over 100 Impact Hubs in over 90 countries with more than 15'000 members. There are currently three Impact Hubs in Switzerland (Zürich, Bern and Geneva).

In her role as a Partnership Curator, Lorena works together with Corporate Partners on Innovation. This includes for example conducting workshops for product, culture or HR development, coaching intrapreneur teams, the creation of Labs as spin offs or the collaboration with start-ups.

Prior to the Impact Hub Zürich, Lorena worked 5 years in Management Consulting, focussing on the design of organisations that align strategy, innovation, culture and processes.

She holds a Masters degree in International Affairs and Governance from the University of St.Gallen (HSG) and a Masters Degree in Affaires Européennes from Sciences Po paris.
