

Donetta Gee-Weiler Bio

Donetta Gee-Weiler attended Indiana University-Purdue University graduating with her Bachelors of Science degree in nursing. She continued her education at Anderson University for her Master of Science degree in nursing with a concentration in nursing management and her Master's in Business Administration which she be completed in May of 2017.

She has been working in women's care for 20 years. Donetta currently resides as vice president of women's and children's services where she oversees patient-centered programs and growth and development for the product line.

Donetta serves on the Office of Women's Health Advisory Board. She is also a member ISDH Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome Task Force and Healthcare Businesswomen's Association. Donetta was awarded the 2014 Indy's Best & Brightest Health & Life Sciences Winner as well as an honoree in the 2015 Indianapolis Business Journal Forty under 40. She also graduated from the Lugar's Series Leadership course in May 2016.

Donetta was born and raised in Indianapolis, Indiana. She is married to Chaddwick Gee-Weiler. Donetta and Chadd have three children. She enjoys spending time with her family, scrapbooking, and reading.