

Catherine B. Levitt is vice president, general counsel and secretary of Astellas for the Americas region. In this role, Ms. Levitt oversees the Legal Department, including Risk Management, and serves as a member of the Astellas US Management Committee. Ms. Levitt joined Fujisawa - merged with Yamanouchi in 2005 to create Astellas - in 2004 as assistant general counsel, specializing in litigation. She was subsequently promoted to associate general counsel, followed by deputy general counsel. In 2013, Ms. Levitt was promoted to vice president of Risk Management and chief litigation counsel for Astellas US, followed by vice president of Legal in April 2016. Prior to Astellas, she served as corporate counsel at Baxter Healthcare and Peoples Energy, and began her career at the law firm of McDermott Will & Emery LLP. Ms. Levitt earned her JD from the University of Illinois College of Law.

Ms. Levitt currently serves on the Board of Directors of Working in the Schools (WITS), an organization that provides holistic literacy support for students in Chicago Public Schools through creating positive and collaborative communities of teachers, volunteers, principals, and investors. Ms. Levitt also is a member of the PhRMA Law Section Executive Committee.
