

Sarah Rawes

Sarah is an experienced Organizational Development consultant, leader, facilitator and change agent driven by the simple belief that organizations can change the world. With experience across multiple industries in both the for-profit and not-for-profit sector, Sarah brings depth in Organizational Development, Change Management, Diversity & Inclusion, Corporate & Social Responsibility and Strategy Development & Execution.

Prior to joining TayganPoint, Consulting Group, Sarah held a variety of roles within Human Resources and Organizational Development in the Tech, Pharma and Healthcare industries. Sarah has led strategic planning and change management across multiple business units with specific focus on helping organizations develop transformative strategies, plans, teams and cultures that enable success. Sarah has a passion for social justice, and sits on the Board of Directors of the Dream Program, a village mentorship program that builds mentoring partnerships between college students and children of lowincome housing in Philadelphia.

Sarah lives outside Philadelphia with her husband and two children.
