

Shruta Rege, Head of Global Regulatory Affairs at Entasis Therapeutics is an accomplished leader in the pharmaceutical/biotechnology industry with over 16 years of experience. She has spearheaded multiple successful global drug approvals across multiple therapeutic areas in small and big pharmaceutical companies. She began her career in non-clinical pharmacology and has ascended into leadership roles in clinical development and regulatory affairs. This vast experience over the years solidified with a strong scientific acumen have positioned her to build and lead teams to develop innovative strategies for the delivery of transformative medicines to patients with a high unmet need.