

Cathy believes that her diverse background has helped her move into positions where change is prevalent. Cathy started out in commercial architecture and after several years, she made a career change into Information Technology working for multiple healthcare companies, including Abbott and Hospira which was recently acquired by Pfizer. She then moved to Mergers & Acquisitions where she has led both divestitures and integrations, including the $4B acquisition of Gambro AB in 2013. Cathy is currently the Vice President of a large scale transformational program at Baxter Healthcare Corporation.

Cathy is passionate about diversity not only in her career but at Baxter as well. She is honored to have served as the immediate past co-leader for Baxter Women Leaders, Baxter's first Business Resource Group and the winner of the Healthcare Businesswomen's Association ACE Award.

Cathy serves on the Board of Directors for Snow City Arts whose mission is to inspire and educate children in hospitals through the arts. She resides in IL with her husband and son.
